Completion of the J.D. degree program requires enrollment in law school as a full-time student for not fewer than five semesters (fall and spring) during the regular academic year.

A student must be enrolled for no less than nine credit hours during each academic semester to be considered a full time student. (Full time status for financial aid purposes may require additional credit hours.) Enrollment for less than nine credit hours during the regular academic year requires the approval of the Dean of Students. A student may not be enrolled for more than eighteen credit hours during any semester (twelve during the summer).

Students planning to graduate in five semesters should submit this Petition for Early Graduate during the spring semester of their second year. Earlier consultation with the Dean of Students is encouraged.

If you plan to sit for the February bar, it is your responsibility to educate yourself regarding the bar application process. The law school will have a Utah Bar representative speak to students during fall semester, but that is generally too late for those planning to sit for the February bar. The Utah Bar application process can take up to six months. Information for the Utah State Bar application process may be found at www.utahbar.org.

I understand that my name will be printed on my diploma and in the convocation program exactly as it appears in the Campus Information System (CIS). I also understand that my diploma will be sent to the mailing address listed on CIS.
